Statement from Alderman Tom Tunney

March 20, 2013

"Negotiations are ongoing with the Chicago Cubs. As Alderman, I know the importance of preserving and renovating historic Wrigley Field in our community.

"The Cubs, the administration and I have had many meetings where creative solutions have been offered that could satisfy the community and the Cubs organization. Moving the scoreboard to left field, where a similar one existed until the 1930's, and replacing it with a video board it is just one of the many ideas that have been on the table. It was discussed in earnest by all parties and dismissed.

"Overall, the discussions have been positive and conversations with the team continue. We all hope that solutions can be reached that are in keeping with the character of the community and the desires of the Cubs."
