2-156-015 Ethics pledge – When required.

(a) Persons required to file pledge. The following persons shall comply with the requirements of this section:

(1) Any person who serves as (i) a non-clerical employee of the Office of the Mayor or, starting on January 1, 2014, a non-clerical city council employee or (ii) a department head; and

(2) Any employee who holds an exempt position, as defined in Section 2-156-010, in a City department, board or agency on or after May 16, 2011, other than a person described in item (1) of this subsection (a); and

(3) Any person who is appointed by the Mayor to the board of any board, commission, authority or agency, on or after May 16, 2011.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

2-156-070 Use or disclosure of confidential information -- Exceptions.

(a) ~~Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section, no no current or former official or employee, including any current or former official or employee of the board or the investigating authorities, shall use or disclose, other than in the performance of his official duties and responsibilities, or as may be required by law, confidential information or any non-public information, including the identity of the subject of an investigation, gained in the course of an investigation or by reason of his position or employment. ~~For purposes of this section, "confidential information" means any information that may not be obtained pursuant to the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, as amended.~~~~

(b) ~~If any person requests the opinion of the board regarding past or ongoing conduct, and if the board determines, pursuant to its rules, that the conduct involves a minor violation of this chapter, the board may issue such person a letter of warning or admonition for the first such violation. However, if the board determines, pursuant to its rules, that the conduct involves a violation of this chapter which is not a minor violation or that the conduct involves a subsequent violation of the same conduct for which the person has been issued a letter of warning or admonition, the board shall advise such person to stop the conduct and self-report the violation to the appropriate investigating authority within 14 days. If the board finds that the person did not self-report the violation as instructed by the board, the board shall provide the person's name, the violation reported, and all related information the board deems relevant, to the appropriate investigating authority. This subsection applies to conduct that occurred or is occurring on or after July 1, 2013.~~

(c) ~~Any person may use an advisory opinion issued by the board regarding such person's future conduct as evidence supporting the person's position or as otherwise appropriate in any investigation or disciplinary proceeding. Once the person uses the board's opinion in accordance with this subsection, the board, if requested in writing citing this subsection by the person or one of the entities referred to in this subsection, shall disclose all confidential or non-public information related to the advisory opinion that does not compromise a third party's~~ confidentiality to the investigating authorities or any city department or agency conducting the investigation or disciplinary proceeding.

2-156-105 Post-employment restrictions on lobbying.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(a-1) Starting on January 1, 2014, an alderman or a non-clerical city council employee shall be prohibited from lobbying the City of Chicago or any city department, board or other city agency for a period of one year after leaving that position.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

2-156-142 Offering, receiving and soliciting of gifts or favors.

(a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no city official, candidate for city office, or employee, and, subject to subsection ~~(h)~~ (g) no covered relative, shall:

- (i) solicit any gift for himself;
- (ii) accept any anonymous gift; or
- (iii) accept any gift of cash, gift card or cash equivalent.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no city official, candidate for city office, or employee, and, subject to subsection ~~(h)~~ (g) no covered relative, shall knowingly accept any gift, unless the total value of all gifts given to the official, candidate for city office, employee or covered relative by a single source amounts to no more than $50.00 in a calendar year.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(d) The restriction in subsection (a) shall not apply to the following:

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(11) Any food, refreshment, lodging, transportation, or other benefit resulting from the outside business, ~~or~~ employment or community activities of the official, candidate for city office, or employee, if such benefits have not been offered or enhanced because of the official position, candidacy or employment of the officer, candidate for city office, or employee, and are customarily provided to others in similar circumstances.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(g) The prohibitions of this section shall not apply to any food, refreshment, lodging, transportation, or other gift or benefit resulting from the outside business, employment or community activities of a covered relative, if such benefit has not been offered or enhanced because of the official position, candidacy, or employment of the officer, candidate for city office, or employee, and is customarily provided to others in similar circumstances.

(h) No City official or employee shall solicit any gift on behalf of a third party, if: (i) that official or employee knows that the prospective donor is seeking administrative or legislative action from the City, and (ii) the official or employee is in a position to directly affect the outcome of that action.

2-156-230 Information required of registrants.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(d) The registration statement required under this section shall be accompanied by a written statement certifying that all information contained therein is true and correct, and a registration fee of $350.00 per person identified as a lobbyist in the registration statement. In addition to this registration fee of $350.00 per person, there shall also be an annual fee of $75.00 for each additional registered client after the first client. Provided, however, that the board shall consider and may, in accordance with objective criteria established by rule, grant a waiver or reduction of the registration and client fees required under this subsection (d) for a specific lobbyist, upon written request in a format and accompanied by such proof as may be specified by the board, based on the following: The lobbyist is a person paid to lobby by a non-profit entity with for-profit members and either (i) the person's primary lobbying responsibilities are to foster small business initiatives primarily within a single official community area or neighborhood within the meaning of Section 1-14-010, or (ii) the non-profit entity has been approved or is pending approval by the city council to be a special service area service provider for the city.

2-156-250 Reports of lobbying activities.

No later than January 20th, April 20th, July 20th and October 20th of each year, each registrant shall file with the board of ethics a written report of lobbying activities during the previous three calendar months. The report shall be on a form prescribed by the board, which may include electronic submission, and shall contain:

(a) The registrant's name, permanent address, and temporary address (if any) while lobbying;

(b) With respect to each client:

(i) The name, business and permanent address and nature of business of the client and of any other business entities on whose behalf lobbying was performed;

(ii) A statement of the amount of compensation received from each client ~~to~~ the nearest $1,000.00;

(iii) The name of each city agency before which the registrant lobbied and a brief description of the legislation or administrative action involved;

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

2-156-270 Failure to file reports.

If a registrant fails to file a report as required herein, the board of ethics shall, within 15 days of the due date, notify the registrant, in a manner prescribed by the board, of his failure to file by the required date. The registrant shall thereafter file his report within ten days of the issuance of the notice. Any registrant who fails to file within the ten days shall be subject to suspension of his lobbyist registration and the penalty or penalties, as applicable, provided in Article VII of this Chapter chapter. Failure to file within the ten days shall constitute a violation of this chapter.

Any registrant who is required to file a report hereunder may effect one 30-day extension of time for filing the report by filing with the board of ethics, not less than ten days before the date on which the statement is due, a declaration of his intention to defer the filing of the report. The filing of such declaration shall suspend application of the penalty provisions contained herein for the duration of the extension. Failure to file by the extended date shall constitute a violation of this chapter and shall be subject ~~the registrant~~ to suspension of his lobbyist registration and the penalty or penalties, as applicable, provided in Article VII of this ~~Chapter~~ chapter.

The board of ethics shall not accept a lobbyist registration statement from any person who owes a fine pursuant to this section until the fine has been paid in full. The registration of any person who fails to file a timely report for three or more reporting periods may be suspended by the board for a one year period.

2-156-310 Appointment of members.

(a) There is hereby created and established the board of ethics. The board shall consist of seven members appointed by the mayor, with consent of the city council. Members of the board shall ~~(i1)~~ reside within the corporate boundaries of the city; ~~(ii2)~~ not hold other elected or appointed public or political party office nor endorse, nor engage in any political or campaign activity on behalf of any candidate for public office; ~~(iii3)~~ not be an employee of the city or any subdivision thereof; ~~(iv4)~~ have no financial interest in any work or business of or official action by the city, or any other governmental agency within the jurisdiction of the ~~State of Illinois~~, County of Cook; or the City of Chicago.

(b) A member of the board shall be appointed for a term of office of four years and hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, except that members first appointed shall be appointed for the following terms of office: two for one year, two for two years, two for three years and one for four years. Vacancies on the board shall be filled in the same manner that original appointments are made and shall be filled for the unexpired term of the member whose place has become vacant.

(c) An executive director of the board of ethics, who shall not be a member of the board, shall be appointed by the mayor from capable individuals recommended by the board, subject to approval of the city council. The executive director shall ~~(i1)~~ reside within the corporate boundaries of the city; ~~(ii2)~~ not hold other elected or appointed public or political party office nor endorse, nor engage in any political or campaign activity on behalf of any candidate for public office; ~~(iii3)~~ have no financial interest in any work or business of or official action by the city, or any other governmental agency within the jurisdiction of ~~the State of Illinois~~, the County of Cook; or the City of Chicago.

2-156-360 Records.

The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon every question or, if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall also keep records of its ~~investigations~~ and other official actions. Every rule, regulation, amendment or repeal thereof, and every order, requirement, decision, or determination of the board shall be filed in the office of the board. The board shall post minutes of any of its public meetings no more than 14 days after the date of such meeting or as required by applicable law.

2-156-380 Powers and duties.

In addition to other powers and duties specifically mentioned in this chapter, the board of ethics shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) ~~to initiate and to receive and refer complaints of violations of any of the provisions of this chapter and to investigate and act upon such complaints as provided by this chapter to the investigating authorities and to refer complaints of violations of the governmental ethics ordinance of a sister agency to the sister agency;~~

(a-1) pursuant to Section 2-156-385, to issue a finding as to whether evidence shows that there is probable cause to believe that there has been a violation of this chapter;

~~(b) to conduct investigations, inquiries and hearings concerning any matter covered by this chapter and to certify its own acts and records. The board may exercise appropriate discretion in determining whether to investigate and whether to act upon any particular complaint or conduct. When the board determines that assistance is needed in conducting investigations, or when required by law, the board shall request the assistance of other appropriate agencies pursuant to Section 2-156-392, to issue a written opinion as to whether there has been a violation of this chapter and to impose a fine for such violation;~~

~~(c) the board of ethics upon a showing of good cause shall have authority to issue subpoenas upon a showing of good cause, at the request of the person under subject of an investigation or hearing, or on its own motion, when conducting an investigation a probable cause finding or hearing on the merits authorized in accordance with this chapter, if (i) the board has a reasonable belief that a violation of the ethics ordinance this chapter has occurred and the party to whom the subpoena is to be issued has previously failed to respond to a written request for the production of documents and/or testimony within seven days of the receipt of said written request; and (ii) the testimony of the witness or the documents or items sought by the subpoena are relevant to the investigation probable cause finding or hearing on the merits.~~

(1) A subpoena shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas issued under the Rules of the Illinois Supreme Court to compel appearance of a deponent, and subject to the same witness and mileage fees fixed by law for such subpoenas.

(2) A subpoena issued under this section shall identify the person to whom it is directed and the documents or other items sought thereby, if any, and the date, time and place for the appearance of the witness and production of the documents or other items described in the subpoena. In no event shall the date for examination or production be less than seven days after service of the subpoena.

(3) No later than the time for appearance or production required by the subpoena, the person to whom the subpoena is directed may object to the subpoena, in whole or in part. The objection shall be in writing, delivered to the board of ethics, and shall specify the grounds for the objection. For seven days after receipt of a timely objection to a subpoena, the board of ethics shall take no action to enforce the subpoena or to initiate prosecution of the person to whom the subpoena is directed. During this seven day period, the board of ethics shall consider the grounds for the objection and may attempt to resolve the objection through negotiation with the person to whom the subpoena is directed. The seven day period may be extended by the board of ethics in order to allow completion of any negotiations. The extension shall be in writing addressed to the person to whom the subpoena is directed, and shall specify the date on which the negotiation period will end. Negotiations may include such matters as the scope of the subpoena and the time, place and manner of response thereto. The filing of an objection to a subpoena, and negotiations pursuant to an objection, shall not constitute refusal to comply with the subpoena, or interference with or obstruction of an investigation;

(d) to require the cooperation of city agencies, officials, employees and other persons whose conduct is regulated by this chapter, in investigating alleged violations of this chapter brought to the attention of the board pursuant to Section 2-156-382. Information reasonably related to ~~an~~ such investigations shall be made available to the board by such persons on written request;

(d-1) to adopt, in consultation with the investigating authorities, and disseminate a summary of all rules and laws setting forth the rights of officials and employees as provided in Chapters 2-55, 2-56 and 2-156;

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(h) to promulgate rules for the conduct of board activities and hearings conducted pursuant to Section 2-156-392, including procedural rules consistent with the April 3, 1990 requirements of due process of law; rules related to: (i) administering waivers; (ii) contesting fines imposed for training and filing violations; (iii) the manner of making settlements, or the board's opinions, determinations and findings, available to the public; and (v) in consultation with the investigating authorities, the criteria to determine whether a potential violation of this chapter is minor. Provided, however, no such rules and regulations shall become effective until 45 days after their submission to the city council. And, provided further, no such rules and regulations shall become effective if, during said 45-day period, the city council, by majority vote of aldermen entitled to be elected, acts to disapprove said rules and regulations. The applicable administrative hearings procedures set forth in Chapter 2-14 and the applicable rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto shall apply to the procedural aspects of matters handled by hearing officers or presented to the board to the extent such procedural aspects are not covered by this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated by the board;

(l) to render advisory opinions with respect to the provisions of this chapter based upon a real or hypothetical set of circumstances, when requested in writing by an official or employee, or by a person who is personally and directly involved. Advisory opinions shall be made available to the public, but the identity of the person requesting the opinion and of any person whose conduct is involved in the set of circumstances described in the request for the opinion shall be confidential. The board shall indicate, in writing, those advisory opinions that have precedential value, and organize such opinions in a searchable database that is accessible from the board's website; and

2-156-382 Anonymous written complaints and complaints initiated by the legislative inspector general.

(a) The board is authorized to receive anonymous written complaints and complaints self-initiated by the legislative inspector general, alleging misconduct by city officials, city employees, including city council employees, or third parties subject to this Chapter.

(b) If the board, based upon the level of detail, corroborating evidence, accompanying documents and credibility of the facts set forth in the complaint, determines that the complaint merits referral to an investigating authority, the board shall refer such complaints to the appropriate investigating authority for further action.

(c) The board shall not take any action regarding any anonymous complaint alleging misconduct by a candidate if received within six months before the election date for the office.

until after the election date. For purposes of this subsection, the term "candidate" shall have the meaning ascribed to that term in Article 9 of the Illinois Election Code, codified at 10 ILCS 5/9-1 et seq.

(d) Nothing provided in this section shall affect the inspector general's authority to receive and investigate complains under his jurisdiction as provided in Chapter 2-56. This section, however, provides the exclusive process for anonymous complaints made to, and complaints self-initiated by, the legislative inspector general.

2-156-385 Probable cause finding.

The investigating authority may request the board to issue a finding as to whether evidence shows that there is probable cause to believe that the subject of an investigation (for purposes of this section, "subject") has violated this chapter, as follows:

(1) The investigating authority may request the board to make a probable cause finding only after notifying the subject in writing. Such notice shall specify all the charges to be brought against the subject, including a summary of the facts alleged to support such finding, and shall state that the investigating authority intends to request a probable cause finding by the board. Such notice must be served upon the subject at least 30 days before the request is made to the board.

(2) When requesting a probable cause finding, the investigating authority shall provide to the board a summary of his investigation, supporting evidence and recommendation.

(3) The board or its designee shall review the report, recommendation and evidence provided by the investigating authority. If the board or its designee finds that the evidence does not show that there is probable cause to believe that the subject has violated this chapter, the board shall close the matter and so notify the investigating authority and the subject. If the board or its designee finds that the evidence shows that there is probable cause to believe that the subject has violated this chapter, the board or its designee shall serve notice of the allegations upon the subject. Such notice shall inform the subject of his right to provide a written response, written submissions and a summary of the evidence supporting his position. The notice also shall set a meeting date with the board or its designee to discuss the allegations and the evidence. The subject must submit all written material and documents supporting his position at least 10 days before the date of the meeting. At the meeting, evidence presented in the matter shall be discussed and the subject shall be given an opportunity to respond to the evidence presented against him. The subject may be represented by counsel at the meeting. The entire meeting shall be reliably recorded or, alternatively, transcribed by a certified court reporter. All records of the meeting shall be kept confidential to the extent allowable under applicable law.

(4) After reviewing all the documents and evidence submitted by the parties, including oral and written responses, the board may: (i) seek to settle the matter; (ii) pursue an action for discipline; (iii) pursue an action for a fine; or (iv) take no action. If a settlement agreement involves the imposition of discipline and the subject is a current employee, such settlement agreement must be approved by the head of the city department, agency or office in which the employee works. If a settlement is reached, the full final settlement agreement, including the name of the subject of the investigation and the disciplinary measure imposed on him, shall be made publicly available to the extent allowable under applicable law.

(5) If the board determines to pursue an action for a fine, the matter shall proceed to a hearing on the merits as provided in Section 2-156-392.

(6) If the subject is a current employee and the board determines to pursue an action for discipline instead of a fine, within 40 days of such determination, the board shall submit a written recommendation, with all the evidence and documents supporting the board's recommendation: (i) to the mayor, if the employee is a department head or an appointed official; (ii) to the chairman of the city council committee or to the alderman for whom the employee works, if the employee is a city council employee; or (iii) to the head of the department or agency in which the employee works, if the employee is neither a department head, appointed official or a city council employee. A person to whom the board has transmitted its recommendation for action shall, within 30 days of receipt of the recommendation, report to the board in writing the actions taken on the recommendation and, to the extent that the person declines to take any recommended action, provide a written statement of reasons for his decision.

2-156-392 Hearing on the merits -- fines.

(a) If the board determines pursuant to Section 2-156-385 to pursue an action for a fine, a hearing on the merits shall be held on the matter no less than 60 days after that determination, as follows:

(1) A hearing on the merits shall be held in a closed session, to the extent allowable under applicable law, before a hearing officer.

(2) The corporation counsel or his designee shall be the prosecutor in proceedings conducted pursuant to this section or any hearing reopened pursuant to Section 2-156-396. The prosecutor shall prepare a statement of charges, which shall be served upon the subject of the hearing (for purposes of this section and Section 2-156-396, "respondent") within 30 days of the hearing officer's determination with: (i) a list of all witnesses the city may call at the hearing; (ii) a copy of all documents the city intends to introduce at the hearing; (iii) any potentially exculpatory material in the city's possession from the investigating authority's investigation; and (iv) a notice of the hearing setting the date of the hearing. The prosecutor may request, as a matter of right, a one-time extension of up to 30 days of the date of serving the statement of charges. The hearing officer may grant any subsequent request for extension by the prosecutor only upon a showing of good cause.

(3) The respondent shall be given an opportunity to submit a written answer to the charges within 21 days after the statement of charges is served upon him. The respondent may request, as a matter of right, a one-time extension of up to 30 days of the date of submitting his written answer. The hearing officer may grant any subsequent request for extension by the respondent only upon a showing of good cause. The respondent or the prosecutor may request, as a matter of right, a one-time extension of the date of the hearing for up to 30 days. If the respondent or the prosecutor requests subsequent extensions of the date of the hearing, the hearing officer may grant such extensions only upon a showing of good cause by the requesting party. No later than 10 days before the date of the hearing, the respondent shall provide to the prosecutor: (i) a list of all witnesses the respondent may call at the hearing, and (ii) a copy of all documents the respondent intends to introduce at the hearing.

(4) The hearing officer may receive written submissions, witness testimony, argument and documents regarding the charge. The hearing officer shall present his report and recommendation on the charges to the board.

(5) The entire hearing on the merits, including any testimony presented to the hearing officer and argument by the parties, shall be reliably recorded or, alternatively, transcribed by a certified court reporter. All records of the hearing on the merits shall be kept confidential to the extent allowable under applicable law.

(6) Within 40 days after the hearing on the merits, the board shall vote on the hearing officer's recommendation, and shall issue a written opinion imposing a fine or stating that no violation has occurred.

(7) If the board imposes a fine, the board's written opinion shall include the name and, if the respondent is a city official or employee, position of the respondent found to have violated this chapter, and an analysis of the evidence and the provision of this chapter at issue. If the board finds that no violation has occurred, it shall so state in its written opinion that includes an analysis of the evidence and the provision of this chapter at issue, and which opinion shall not, unless the respondent requests otherwise, include his name or position. The opinion of the board shall be made publicly available.

(b) Upon the board's imposition of a fine, the respondent shall either: (1) pay the fine or (2) petition the board to reconsider its opinion as provided in section 2-156-396.

(c) Upon a final determination by the board that the respondent did not commit a violation of this chapter, the respondent may submit a request to the board seeking reimbursement of reasonable legal expenses and costs incurred in defending the alleged violation. The request for reimbursement shall be granted if the board determines, using established legal principles, that the statement of charges was submitted and pursued in bad faith. If the board determines that the statement of charges was submitted and pursued in bad faith as provided in this section, such finding shall be made publicly available.

2-156-396 Request for reconsideration and appeal.

(a) Any respondent who is found by the board to have violated this chapter and who is the subject of a fine may, within 14 days of issuance of the board's opinion, petition the board to reconsider its opinion. Such petition shall be made only on the basis of newly discovered evidence or an intervening change of the law.

(b) Upon receiving a petition for reconsideration, the board may: (1) reopen the hearing process; (2) modify its opinion; or (3) deny the petition.

(c) The final decision of the board imposing a fine is subject to administrative review under the Illinois Administrative Review Law, codified at 735 ILCS 5/3-101, et seq., the provisions of which are adopted and incorporated by reference and made a part of this section as if fully set forth herein.

2-156-402 Waivers.

(a) When requested by a city official or employee, the board may grant a waiver from compliance with any of the following:

- (1) The gift restrictions in Section 2-156-142(a) to the extent they apply to material or travel expense for meetings;
- (2) The post-employment restrictions provided in Section 2-156-100;
- (3) The interest in city business restrictions provided in Section 2-156-110; and
- (4) The restrictions pertaining to matters related to a city official's or employee's immediate former employer or client as provided in Section 2-156-111(d).

(b) Any waiver shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the board, in writing and shall be made publicly available.

2-156-465 Sanctions.

(a) Employment sanction. In addition to any other applicable penalty provided in this article, any employee found to have violated any of the provisions of this chapter, or to have knowingly furnished false or misleading information to the board of ethics ~~with the intent to~~

~~mislead~~, shall be subject to employment sanctions, including discharge, in accordance with procedures under which the employee may otherwise be disciplined. Any official who ~~intentionally~~ knowingly files a false or misleading statement of financial interests, or knowingly fails to file a statement within the time prescribed in this chapter, or otherwise violates any provision of this chapter, shall be subject to removal from office.

(b) Fines. The following fines shall, as appropriate, apply to violations of this chapter:

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(3) Failure to register or file reports by lobbyists. Any lobbyist who violates section 2-156-245 or section 2-156-270 shall be fined $1,000.00 for each such violation. Each day that a violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense to which a separate fine shall apply. Any lobbyist who violates any provision of Article IV of this chapter shall be subject to the suspension of his lobbyist registration.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(c) The board may recommend an employment sanction or impose a fine for any violation of this chapter in accordance with Section 2-156-385 or Section 2-156-392, respectively.

2-156-505 Training and filing violations – Executive director’s authority.

Upon determining that a person has violated Section 2-156-145, 2-156-146, 2-156-190, 2-156-245, or 2-156-270, the executive director of the board is authorized to impose upon such person an appropriate fine as provided in Section 2-156-465. The executive director is authorized to impose such fine starting on the seventh day after the executive director notified the person of the violation. The person may contest the imposition of such fine as provided by rule. The process set forth in Sections 2-156-385 and 2-156-392 are not a prerequisite to the imposition of fines pursuant to this section.

2-156-530 Annual public hearing on ethics.

The board and the investigating authorities shall coordinate and conduct a joint annual public hearing before the city council to review major activities, including trainings, investigations, settlements, and opinions; to describe resource usage; to address trends in ethics issues; to suggest ethics compliance strategies; and to assess challenges and recommend areas of improvement regarding the city’s ethics institutions, and investigation and adjudication processes.

SECTION 2. Chapter 2-55 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by inserting new Section 2-55-065, by deleting the language struck through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

2-55-030 Legislative Inspector General – Appointment and qualifications.

(Omitted text is not affected by this ordinance)

(d) ~~No~~ The legislative inspector general shall pledge in writing, at the time of his appointment, that, for one two years after the termination of his appointment for any reason, the legislative inspector general shall not: (i) become a candidate for any elective elected public office

~~in which includes the City of Chicago in its geographic jurisdiction; or (ii) hold any elected public office in which includes the City of Chicago in its geographic jurisdiction.~~

(e) Neither the legislative inspector general nor any employee of the office of the legislative inspector general shall engage in any political activity as defined in Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code of Chicago.

(f) This section shall not apply to the legislative inspector general or any employee of the legislative inspector general to the extent that it is inconsistent with any law or regulation of the United States or the State of Illinois that preempts home rule.

2-55-060 Powers and duties.

The legislative inspector general shall have jurisdiction over all aldermen and city council employees. In addition to other powers and duties specifically mentioned in this chapter Chapters 2-55 and 2-156, the legislative inspector general shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To receive and register complaints alleging misconduct against aldermen, and city council employees and lobbyists engaged in the lobbying of aldermen or city council employees.

(Omitted part of this subsection is not affected by this ordinance)

~~(b) To investigate take action on matters under his jurisdiction, subject to the following: signed and sworn complaints alleging misconduct against aldermen and city council employees only upon a finding of reasonable cause or issuance of a letter of direction by the board of ethics. The legislative inspector general may exercise appropriate discretion in determining whether to petition the board of ethics for a finding of reasonable cause and act upon any particular complaint or conduct, except where otherwise directed by the board of ethics;~~

(1) If the legislative inspector general receives:

(A) a signed, sworn complaint alleging misconduct against an alderman, city council employee or lobbyist engaged in the lobbying of aldermen council employees, or
or city

(B) a complaint referred to him for further action by the board of ethics in accordance with Section 2-156-382, or

(C) a matter self-reported or referred by the board of ethics in accordance with Section 2-156-070(b).

~~the legislative inspector general, after reviewing the matter, may only: (i) decline to open an investigation if the legislative inspector general determines that the matter lacks foundation or does not fall within his jurisdiction; or (ii) transmit the complaint to the supervisor of the city council employee, or, if the complaint is against an alderman, to the committee on committees, rules and ethics or its successor committee, if the legislative inspector general determines that the potential violation is minor and can be resolved internally as a personnel matter; or (iii) open an investigation. The board of ethics shall promulgate, in consultation with the investigating authorities, rules setting forth the criteria to determine whether a potential violation of Chapter 2-156 is minor.~~

(2) Before the legislative inspector general interviews a person subject to investigation or a subpoena in relation to a matter under his jurisdiction, he shall inform the person of that person's right to be represented by counsel at the interview.

(3) At any point during an investigation that the legislative inspector general conducts in accordance with this chapter, he may only: (i) dismiss the matter and close the investigation based on a finding that the alleged violation is not sustained; or (ii) refer the matter to the appropriate law enforcement authority, if he reasonably believes that the alleged misconduct would violate a criminal statute; or (iii) request a probable cause finding in accordance with Section 2-156-385.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, complaints submitted to the legislative inspector general, investigation files, and reports on investigations shall be confidential in accordance with Section 2-156-400.

(5) If the legislative inspector general receives a complaint alleging misconduct against an alderman or city council employee, which is not signed and sworn to by the person making the complaint, the legislative inspector general, unless he determines that the complaint is defective on its face, shall transmit said complaint to the board of ethics. The board of ethics shall consider such a complaint as an anonymous complaint subject to section 2-156-382;

(b-1) To self-initiate complaints alleging misconduct against aldermen, city council employees and lobbyists engaged in the lobbying of aldermen or city council employees and submit such complaints for consideration of the board of ethics as provided in section 2-156-382;

(c) To issue subpoenas. Upon approval of upon initiating an investigation in accordance with this chapter by the board of ethics, the legislative inspector general shall have authority to issue subpoenas when conducting an investigation authorized in accordance with this chapter, if: (i) the party to whom the subpoena is to be issued has previously failed to respond to a written request for the production of documents and/or testimony within seven days of the receipt of said written request; and (ii) the testimony of the witness or the documents or items sought by the subpoena are relevant to the investigation;

(1) A subpoena shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas issued under the Rules of the Illinois Supreme Court to compel appearance of a deponent, and subject to the same witness and mileage fees fixed by law for such subpoenas.

(2) A subpoena issued under this section shall identify the person to whom it is directed and the documents or other items sought thereby, if any, and the date, time and place for the appearance of the witness and production of the documents or other items described in the subpoena. In no event shall the date for examination or production be less than seven days after service of the subpoena.

(3) No later than the time for appearance or production required by the subpoena, the person to whom the subpoena is directed may object to the subpoena, in whole or in part. The objection shall be in writing, delivered to the legislative inspector general, and shall specify the grounds for the objection. For seven days after receipt of a timely objection to a subpoena, the legislative inspector general shall take no action to enforce the subpoena or to initiate prosecution of the person to whom the subpoena is directed. During this seven day period, the ~~board of ethics~~ legislative inspector general shall consider the grounds for the objection and may attempt to resolve the objection through negotiation with the person to whom the subpoena is directed. The seven day period may be extended by the legislative inspector general in order to allow the completion of any negotiations. The extension shall be made in writing addressed to the person to whom the subpoena is directed, and shall specify the date on which the negotiation period will end. Negotiations may include such matters as the scope of the subpoena and the time, place and manner of response thereto. The filing of an objection to a subpoena, and negotiations pursuant to an objection, shall not constitute refusal to comply with the subpoena, or interference with or obstruction of an investigation-;

~~(d) To prepare and present reports to the board of ethics in accordance with Section 2-55-080; [Reserved]~~

(e) To promulgate rules for the conduct of investigations, including procedural rules consistent with the requirements of due process of law, within ninety days of the appointment of the legislative inspector general by the city council. Provided, however, that no such rules and regulations shall become effective until forty-five days after their submission to the city council and, provided further, that no such rules and regulations shall become effective if, during said forty-five day period, the city council, by majority vote of aldermen entitled by law to be elected, acts to disapprove said rules and regulations;

(f) To prepare and publish, from time to time but at least semi-annually, reports summarizing the legislative inspector general's activities and to present such reports to the committee on committees, rules and ethics or its successor committee, including the number of complaints declined by the legislative inspector general in accordance with subsection(b)(1) of this section and the reasons for such declination, the number of complaints initiated but discontinued and the reasons for such discontinuations, the number of self-initiated and anonymous complaints referred to the legislative inspector general by the board of ethics, and the number of complaints referred to other agencies pursuant to subsection (g) of this section and the name of such agencies. Provided, however, that if all of the following three circumstances are present with regard to a complaint referred to another agency by the legislative inspector general, then he may delay including in his reports any information related to that complaint until after the conclusion of the investigation associated with that complaint: (i) the complaint addresses potential criminal conduct and has been referred to a state or federal law enforcement agency, and (ii) the investigation of the conduct at issue is ongoing, and (iii) in the judgment of the legislative inspector general, public disclosure of the referral would compromise the effectiveness of the investigation; and

(g) To refer to the city's office of inspector general ~~and the board of ethics~~ or the appropriate sister agency complaints against all persons over whom the legislative inspector general lacks jurisdiction.

2-55-065 Time limit for completing investigations.

The legislative inspector general shall conclude his investigation of any violation of Chapter 2-156 under his jurisdiction no later than two years from the date of initiating the investigation; provided, however, that any period of time during which he has suspended his investigation in accordance with Section 2-55-110, or any time period during which the person under investigation has taken affirmative action to conceal evidence or delay the investigation, shall not count towards the two-year period. Notwithstanding any tolling or suspension of time applied, investigations by the legislative inspector general under this Chapter are subject to an absolute four-year time limit from the date of initiation.

2-55-070 Complaints to be verified by certification.

(a) Complaints alleging misconduct against an alderman or city council employee upon which the legislative inspector general takes action must be verified by certification in accordance with this section or must be referred to the legislative inspector general by the board of ethics as authorized in section 2-156-382 or must be self-reported or referred by the board of ethics in accordance with Section 2-156-070(b). The several matters stated in the complaint shall be stated positively based upon facts adduced in the complaint.

(b) The person having knowledge of the matters stated in the complaint shall subscribe to a certification in substantially the following form: "Under penalties as provided by law pursuant to Section 2-55-140 of the Municipal Code of Chicago, the undersigned certifies that the statements set forth in this instrument are true and correct, except as to matters therein stated to be on information and belief and as to such matters the undersigned certifies as aforesaid that he verily believes the same to be true."

(c) Any complaint certified in accordance with this section may be used in the same manner and with the same force and effect as though subscribed and sworn to under oath.

(d) Any person who intentionally makes a false statement, material to the investigation, in any complaint alleging misconduct against an alderman or city council employee, which is certified by such person in accordance with this section, shall be guilty of knowingly furnishing false statements or misleading information and shall be subject to the penalties listed in Section 2-55-140.

(e) This section shall not be construed to prohibit the board of ethics from receiving and referring anonymous and self-initiated complaints to the legislative inspector general for action as provided in section 2-156-382.

2-55-110 Investigation by other agencies.

(a) If the legislative inspector general is reliably informed that a matter under investigation is also under investigation by a law enforcement agency, the legislative inspector general shall suspend his investigation. The legislative inspector general may reinstate his investigation upon the conclusion of the investigation by the law enforcement agency.

(b) If the legislative inspector general has a reasonable basis for concluding that an investigation has revealed criminal conduct, the legislative inspector general shall ~~inform the board of ethics, suspend his investigation and~~ refer the matter to the appropriate law enforcement authority, ~~and suspend his investigation.~~

2-55-140 False claims – Penalty.

Any person who makes a false statement, material to the issue or point in question, which he does not believe to be true, in any complaint relating to an investigation conducted by the legislative inspector general's investigations of an alderman or city council employee, and which is certified by such person in accordance with Section 2-55-070 shall be guilty of knowingly furnishing false statements or misleading information. Any person who violates ~~the provisions of~~ this section shall be subject to a fine of not less than ~~$300.00~~ $1,000.00 and not more than ~~$500.00~~ $2,000.00 for each such offense, and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months. Actions seeking the imposition of a fine only shall be filed as quasi-criminal actions subject to the provisions of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, as amended. Actions seeking incarceration, or incarceration and a fine, shall be filed and prosecuted as misdemeanor actions under the procedure set forth in Section 1-2-1.1 of the Illinois Municipal Code, as amended.

SECTION 3. Chapter 2-56 of the Municipal Code of Chicago is hereby amended by adding new sections 2-156-145, 2-56-155, by deleting the language struck through and by inserting the language underscored, as follows:

2-56-020 Inspector general – Appointment and authority.

The mayor shall create a Blue Ribbon Panel of five members to diligently search out qualified candidates who have relevant education or work experience for the position of inspector general and make recommendations to the mayor. The Blue Ribbon Panel shall consist of members of the community who have exhibited the highest moral character and integrity, who have demonstrated a commitment to public service, including but not limited to, deans of colleges, retired judges, and directors of neighborhood, civic or community organizations. The inspector general shall be appointed by the mayor from individuals recommended by the Blue Ribbon Panel, subject to approval of the city council, and shall have responsibility for the operation and management of the office of inspector general. He The inspector general shall be appointed for a term of four years, which may be renewed at the discretion of the mayor, subject to approval of the city council.

(a) The powers and duties of the inspector general shall extend to the conduct of the following: (a) except as limited in this section all elected and appointed officers of the city government in the performance of their official duties; (b) except as limited in this section, all employees of the city government in the performance of their official duties; (c) all contractors and subcontractors in the providing of goods or services to the city pursuant to a contract; (d) business entities in seeking contracts or certification of eligibility for city contracts; and (e) persons seeking certification of eligibility for participation in any city program. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the office of inspector general shall have no power or authority over any member of the city council, or any city council employee, as defined in Section 2-55-010 of the Municipal Code of Chicago. If the office of inspector general receives any complaint alleging misconduct, inefficiency or waste against any member of the city council or any city council employee, as defined in Section 2-55-010 of the Municipal Code of Chicago, the inspector general shall promptly transmit said complaint to the legislative inspector general. Nothing in this section shall preclude the inspector general from referring a complaint or information ~~concerning a member of the city council or any employee or staff person of any member of the city council or any employee or any staff person of any city council committee~~ to the legislative inspector general, the appropriate sister agency, or the appropriate federal, state or local law enforcement authorities.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter to the contrary, if the office of the inspector general receives a complaint alleging a violation of Chapter 2-156 against any city official, city employee or any other person subject to Chapter 2-156 except an alderman, city council employee or lobbyist engaged in the lobbying of aldermen or city council employees, as the term "city council employee" is defined in Section 2-55-010, the inspector general, after reviewing the complaint, may only: (i) decline to open an investigation if he determines that the complaint lacks foundation or does not relate to a violation of Chapter 2-156; or (ii) refer the matter to the supervisor of the employee or official if he determines that the potential violation is minor and can be resolved internally as a personnel matter; or (iii) open an investigation. The board of ethics shall promulgate, in consultation with the investigating authorities, rules setting forth the criteria to determine whether a potential violation of Chapter 2-156 is minor.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter to the contrary, at any point during an investigation that the inspector general conducts on matters pertaining to violations of Chapter 2-156, the inspector general may only: (i) dismiss the matter and close the investigation based on a finding that the alleged violation is not sustained; or (ii) refer the matter to the appropriate law enforcement authority, if he reasonably believes that the alleged misconduct would violate a criminal statute; or (iii) request a probable cause finding in accordance with Section 2-156-385.

(3) The inspector general shall conclude his investigation of any violation of Chapter 2-156 under his jurisdiction no later than two years from the date of initiating the investigation; provided, however, that any time period during which the person under investigation has taken affirmative action to conceal evidence or delay the investigation, shall not count towards the two-year period. Notwithstanding any tolling or suspension of time applied, governmental ethics investigations by the inspector general under this Chapter are subject to an absolute four-year time limit from the date of initiation.

(c) Before the inspector general interviews a person subject to investigation or a subpoena in relation to a complaint under his jurisdiction, he shall inform the person of that person's right to be represented by counsel at the interview.

2-56-070 Confidentiality of informants – Exceptions.

(a) Where the copy of the report given to the head of any department or agency recommends disciplinary action against an employee of that agency;

(b) Where the copy of the report given to the chief procurement officer makes recommendations concerning any contractor, subcontractor, applicant for a contract, or person seeking certification of eligibility for a contract;

(c) Where the copy of the report given to the head of a department or agency makes recommendations concerning a person seeking certification of eligibility for a program administered by the department or agency;

(d) Where the copy given to the mayor recommends disciplinary action against the head or any employee of any executive department or agency-;

(e) Where the copy of the report is given to the board of ethics or a hearing officer in compliance with a probable cause finding or a hearing on the merits or as otherwise provided in Chapter 2-156.

2-56-110 Files and reports confidential – Public statements authorized when.

Except as otherwise provided herein, all investigatory files and reports of the office of inspector general shall be confidential and shall not be divulged to any person or agency, except to the United States Attorney, the Illinois Attorney General or the State's Attorney of Cook County, or as otherwise provided in this chapter or Chapter 2-156. The inspector general is authorized to issue public statements in the following circumstances: (a) if an investigation exonerates a person who is publicly known to have been under investigation, where such person requests such a statement; ~~(b) subject to the conditions set forth in subsection (b) of this section,~~ if an investigation, audit or inspection concerns inefficient or wasteful management; and (c) in a public summary of each investigation resulting in sustained findings of misconduct. The public summary shall briefly state, without disclosing the name of any individual who was the subject of such investigation, (i) the nature of the allegation or complaint; (ii) the specific violations resulting in sustained findings; (iii) the inspector general's recommendation for discipline or other corrective measures; and (iv) the city's response to and final decision on the inspector general's recommendation.

2-56-120 Quarterly reports to city council.

No later than the fifteenth day of January, April, July and October of each year, the inspector general shall file with the city council a report, accurate as of the last day of the preceding month, indicating: the number of investigations initiated since the date of the last report; the number of investigations concluded since the last report; ~~and~~ the number of investigations pending as of the reporting date; the number of investigations that were declined in accordance with subsection (b) of section 2-56-050 and the reasons for such declination, the number of complaints initiated but discontinued and the reasons for such discontinuations, the number of anonymous complaints referred to the inspector general by the board of ethics, the number of self-initiated complaints investigated by the inspector general, and the number of complaints referred to other agencies pursuant to subsection (a) of section 2-56-050 and the name of such agencies. Provided, however, that if all of the following three circumstances are present with regard to a complaint referred to another agency by the inspector general, then he may delay including in his report any information related to that complaint until after the conclusion of the investigation associated with that complaint: (i) the complaint addresses potential criminal conduct and has been referred to a state or federal law enforcement agency, and (ii) the investigation of the conduct at issue is ongoing, and (iii) in the judgment of the inspector general, public disclosure of the referral would compromise the effectiveness of the investigation. The report shall also include the number of investigations of the conduct of employees; the number of investigations of the conduct of appointed officials; the number of investigations of the conduct of elected officials; the number of investigations of the conduct of contractors, subcontractors and persons seeking city contracts; the number of investigations of the conduct of persons seeking certification of eligibility for city contracts or other city programs; the number of investigations involving alleged misconduct; the number of investigations involving alleged waste or inefficiency.

2-56-150 Political activities prohibited.

(a) No inspector general or employee of the office of the inspector general may, during his term of appointment or employment: (i) hold, or become candidate for, any other elected or appointed public office except for appointments to governmental advisory boards or study commissions or as otherwise expressly authorized by law; or (ii) actively participate in any campaign for any elective office.

(b) The inspector general shall pledge in writing, at the time of his appointment, that, for two years after the termination of the inspector general appointment for any reason, the inspector general shall not: (i) become a candidate for any elected public office which includes the City of Chicago in its geographic jurisdiction; or (ii) hold any elected public office which includes the City of Chicago in its geographic jurisdiction.

(c) Neither the inspector general nor any employee of the office of inspector general shall engage in any political activity as defined in Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code.

(d) This section shall not apply to the inspector general or any employee of the inspector general to the extent that it is inconsistent with any law or regulation of the United States or the State of Illinois that preempts home rule.

2-56-145 False claims – Penalty.

Any person who makes a false statement, material to the issue or point in question, which he does not believe to be true, in any complaint relating to an investigation conducted by the inspector general shall be guilty of knowingly furnishing false statements or misleading information. Any person who violates this section shall be subject to a fine of not less than $1,000.00 and not more than $2,000.00 for each such offense, and/or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months. Actions seeking the imposition of a fine only shall be filed as quasi-criminal actions subject to the provisions of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure, as amended. Actions seeking incarceration, or incarceration and a fine, shall be filed and prosecuted as misdemeanor actions under the procedure set forth in Section 1-2-1.1 of the Illinois Municipal Code, as amended.

2-56-155 Statute of limitations on ethics investigations.

An investigation of any violation of Chapter 2-156 may not be initiated more than two years after the most recent act of alleged misconduct.

SECTION 4. For investigations under the jurisdiction of the legislative inspector general and governmental ethics investigations under the jurisdiction of the inspector general that are pending upon the effective date of this ordinance, the two-year investigation time period referenced in subsections 2-55-065 and 2-56-050(b)(2) shall commence on July 1, 2013.
