Illinois EPA Statement on Clean Power Plan Final Rule

SPRINGFIELD – Illinois EPA Director Lisa Bonnett issued the following statement following President Obama’s announcement on the Clean Power Plan final rule:

“Illinois is evaluating the final rule. Illinois’ priority will be to ensure that our energy sector has the flexibility needed to meet the emission reduction limits under the Clean Power Plan, while providing residents and businesses with reliable and affordable electricity. Illinois is fortunate in that we have tremendous energy diversity, and we will want to leverage our strengths.”
