"Learning is alive through everything we do and everywhere we go."

January 11, 2018

On behalf of the administration, students and staff of Roger C. Sullivan H.S., I would like to personally congratulate alumni member Mr. Joel Weisman, class of 1960, on the occasion of his final appearance as host and senior editor of the Emmy Award-winning weekly series Chicago Tonight: The Week in Review, which will air on Friday, January 19, 2018 at 7:00 p.m. This segment will also celebrate the 40th anniversary of Chicago Tonight.

It is always rewarding to be made aware of the success of Sullivan Alumni in their respective careers here in the Chicago community and beyond, which brings great joy and satisfaction to me as an educator and administrator alike, and to know that our work has not been in vain.

We would love for you to visit your alma mater sometime soon. Sullivan is one of the most diverse schools in the CPS. We have over 50 different languages spoken here in school, and 25% of our student population is comprised of special education students.

When I became principal of Sullivan in 2013, it had been on the verge of closure, and was the lowest performing high school (level 3) on the north-side. Five (5) years later, we are now a level 2+ school-- on the cusp of achieving the highest CPS performance level.

At Sullivan, we believe in family, integrity, service and tenacity (F.I.S.T). Therefore, we believe that these core values will make our students successful in college, in their careers, and life in general.

Continued peace, prosperity and blessings to you as you embark on this next chapter in your life and career.

Sincerely,

Chad H. Adams, principal
